

Local and Global History Using Local Literature

Chaminade University of Honolulu
Henry Hall 207

Saturday, November 18, 2017

8:30 A.M. – 4:00 P.M.

The Local and Global History Using Local Literature teacher workshop will feature locally published novels, poems and biographies as tools to aid in teaching local, American and world history. This includes looking at how to address difficult subjects (racism, genocide, imperialism) in the classroom, as well as using fiction and non-fictional writing in teaching about history. One benefit teachers will learn firsthand is the emotional and engaging power of such writing to get students personally involved in the subject matter.

*Copies of featured books will be available for purchase at a special discounted price at workshop.

This workshop is sponsored by Hawai'i Council for the Humanities, Chaminade History Center, in Association with Bamboo Ridge Press, Children's Literature Hawai'i, and the Manoa Foundation.

Chaminade
University
OF HONOLULU

Travel stipends are available for neighbor island teachers. For more information, please contact Lisa Yamaki at (808) 732-5402 x. 2 or lyamaki@hihumanities.org.