

POLICE-CITIZEN INTERACTIONS: WHAT WORKS? AN EVIDENCE BASED POLICING WORKSHOP

January 13, 2017

9:00am ~ 5:00pm

ABILITIES CENTRE, 55 GORDON ST., WHITBY, ON

Co-sponsored by the Durham Regional Police Service and the Canadian Society of Evidence Based Policing, this workshop is FREE to police officers and civilian police members with an interest in Evidence Based Policing. Discussions will include an introductory talk on “The Principles of Evidence Based Policing” (Laura Huey, CAN-SEBP) followed by informative talks from Renee Mitchell (ASEBP), Chief Paul Martin (DRPS), Chief Bryan Larkin (WRPS), Chris O’Connor (UOIT) and Camie Condon (Halton/WLU), highlighting the latest research on police-citizen interactions.

Seating is Limited

Register by January 03, 2017 at 4pm

Invited Police Services Register through Eventbrite

For assistance regarding Eventbrite please contact Shelley Kluem 905-721-2000 ext. 2450 or 1584@drps.ca

