

AccessOC, Southern California
1st Annual Hike for Health
Terms of Participation

CANCELATION & REFUND POLICY

Any and all cancelation and/or refund requests must be emailed to the event organizer at info@accessoc.org no more than thirty (30) days from the date of ticket purchase/event registration. Please include the date of purchase/registration along with the registrant contact information in each request. Refunds will be processed within thirty (30) days after the acknowledgement of receipt of a refund request via email.

RAIN OR SHINE POLICY

Orange County, southern California, is subject to occasional rain and high-winds. Annual temperatures fluctuate from below 30 degrees Fahrenheit to over 90 degrees Fahrenheit. It is the responsibility of the event participant to prepare for the anticipated weather conditions during the day of the event.

OUTDOOR ENVIRONMENT

Please be aware all hikes will take place over uneven terrain that requires the use of proper shoes and clothing. In addition, you may come in contact with wildlife including bees, poison oak, ticks and snakes. The festival portion of the event will take place on an outdoor grass lawn. Some games may require physical activity. It is the responsibility of all participants to dress appropriately and to carry any medication and other important personal belongings at all times during the event.

EXTREME CONDITIONS

In the event of fire, flood, or extreme weather conditions, The Irvine Ranch Outdoor Education Center (IROEC) may elect to close an area(s) of its property for safety reasons. The IROEC reserves the decision of a closure and the duration of such a closure.

LOST AND FOUND

All items lost and found will be placed in the IROEC Lost & Found. Please be aware The IROEC cannot hold on to Lost & Found items for more than seven (7) days past the day of an event. Unclaimed items may be discarded or donated to charitable organizations.

MEDIA POLICY

At any given time, our event(s) may be documented and recorded. AccessOC, Southern California, reserves the rights to all video, sound and imagery (including photography) captured before, during or after an event. By accepting the terms of this participation agreement, you waive any rights to any form of media described above in which you may appear. In addition, you acknowledge that any portion or the entirety of a video, sound or image may be uploaded onto the internet for use by AccessOC, Southern California, website and or social media platforms.
