

Hey SEBTS folks I wanted to make you aware of a unique opportunity to fulfill your MIS3991/6991 missions practicum that's required in several of our degree programs.

For anyone that has a heart for multiplying disciples, churches, and leaders this training is a must. It's a commitment, but it will be well worth your time. Invite others as well that you feel may benefit from this training. Let me know if you have any questions.

Aug. 7-10 from 8-5 daily: Raleigh 4 Fields Intensive Training For Church Planters & Disciple Making Catalysts

Location: Raleigh,NC (Imago Dei is host location - please do not contact them for info related to the training or course)

Trainers: George Robinson (facilitator), Troy Cooper, Berk Wilson, Justin White, Daniel Reese,

Questions about the 4 Day Training Contact: justin.white@e3partners.org

To register for the training go to www.noplacelleftdu.wordpress.com

* registration for students is $50 and includes materials and lunches

After you've completed registration for the 4 day intensive, bring a print out confirmation to the Center for Great Commission Studies and they will take care of your MIS3991/6991 course registration. After that email my assistant at cridley@sebts.edu to request the syllabus.

Following the 4 Day Training each student will have reading/writing assignments and coaching for implementation that goes throughout the fall semester. Written assignments will be due in November and December. Between the training and November you must participate in 4 additional days of evangelism and disciple-making under the supervision of your assigned coach.

If this sounds like something you're ready to commit to, register today! Space will be limited.

* If you do not follow these instructions exactly you will risk not being eligible for a tuition waiver. No exceptions will be made.
